OGUNQUIT ME

On the Margin
2019
ANNUAL REPORT

Sally Struthers and Bradford T. Kenney at the Leavitt

On Sunday evening, June 30th, the Marginal Way Preservation Fund and the Ogunquit Playhouse brought Sally Struthers and Bradford Kenney, the Executive Artistic Director of the Playhouse, together for a truly memorable evening at the Leavitt Theater in downtown Ogunquit.

Now in her 70's, Sally's enthusiasm and energy were indisputable, despite coming directly from her performance in "42nd Street" at the Playhouse.

Her wit and humor as well as her compassion for others brought the house to its feet at the end of this entertaining and totally engaging evening. Her friendships, especially with Brad, as well as the kindness she's experienced in our small town since coming to the Playhouse 23 years ago were revealed as well as her impeccable comedic talent. Sally also spoke of her love of the Marginal Way and has been a steadfast supporter in recent years.

We're grateful to the Leavitt Theater staff for their support during the evening of this sold-out performance. We're also thankful for the raffle prizes and donations from some of our local business sponsors, including Kennebunk Savings Bank, Panache, On the Main, Yardarm Wine, Cheese & Gift Shop, The Weekly Sentinel, The Leary Family, The Anchorage, The Beachmere Inn and Salon Loka.

This event was a true collaboration between the Marginal Way Preservation Fund, the Ogunquit Playhouse and the Leavitt Theater. We are thankful for this opportunity that brought us together and we look forward to working with them again.

The Marginal Way Preservation Fund

is honored to welcome 3 new Board Members.

JIM OLIVER

Jim Oliver has over 35 years of experience designing and implementing enterprise network systems for clients across many verticals including financial services, utilities, and health care. After working in a technical role in Boston radio during and after college, the idea for a touch screen based studio control system was born. Jim left radio to form Media Touch Systems, where the development of the touch screen system continued. Jim served as the Director of Systems Integration for the company overseeing the design, installation and training for systems installed globally.

In 1989 Jim joined Alpine Computer Systems as a technical systems architect and worked to grow the consulting business until its sale in 1996. Alpine was honored by INC Magazine for three years in a row as one of the 500 fastest growing, privately held, companies in the United States. After the sale, Jim remained involved in the new company in a consulting role.

The company was again sold to Cognizant Technology Solutions. Jim served as Manager of IT Infrastructure Solutions while with Cognizant through 2007.

In 2008 Jim joined the Advocator Group as Executive Vice President of Information Technology. During his four-year tenure, the Advocator Group streamlined operations with technology and grew from a $9M to $35M business and increased its profit margin by 10%. Brown & Brown Insurance (NYSE:BRO) acquired the Advocator Group in 2010. Jim remained with The Advocator Group after the acquisition and was the chair of the Brown & Brown technology steering committee.

Jim is in his 17th season of owning and operating Bessie's Restaurant in Ogunquit and is also involved in the operation of six RE/MAX Realty One offices located in southern Maine with his husband Don Wunder.

CHARLIE HINDMARSH

Charlie resides in Florida but has maintained a summer residence in Ogunquit for 25 years. He has been an active member of the community returning to the MWPF Board after an absence of a few years. He is engaged with the Playhouse and The Ogunquit Museum of American Art.

A retired Financial Services Executive, he brings many years of Not for Profit board experience in the Arts, Healthcare, Child Services and Musical Theater. He is passionate about maintaining the Marginal Way for many generations to come and is equally passionate about Ogunquit, his beautiful place by the sea.

ALLISON RAMSEY

Allison is a local resident of Ogunquit where she resides with her husband and their two rescue dogs. A graduate of the Manhattan College School of Business where she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Management, Marketing and Psychology, Allison has worked in Corporate Human Resources and Project Management for a Fortune 500 Company for several years helping to integrate new and innovative business lines into the organization.

As a local resident of Ogunquit, she is passionate that the unique treasure that is the Marginal Way continues to be a special place for all to enjoy for many years to come. Allison is also a proud aunt of 7 nieces and nephews who all come to visit her in Ogunquit and enjoy the Marginal Way each year.

The Fabulous Find

The Fabulous Find , a 501c3 non-profit organization (listed under A Caring Community), is a boutique style resale shop at 139 State Rd (Route One) in Kittery which partners with various worthy, local non-profit organizations each month. Since their inception in mid-July of 2010, this organization has distributed just over $1,500,000 to more than 150 local non-profits.

This community resale shop with very low overhead chooses three organizations each month and whatever profits made that month are distributed to those that are chosen by their board. We were privileged to be selected for the second time in the past 3 years and on September 7th we were honored with a check of $8,268.62 for the MWPF. Amazing!

We are so grateful to this wonderful organization for helping so many non-profits.

Marginal Way Town Committee Report

A major effort has been underway over the past year to repair the 37 separate areas on the Marginal Way damaged by the three March 2018 nor'easters.

The repair process required the preparation of budgets, reporting to the Select Board on repair activities, identification and description of each damaged area, permit application for each damaged area to the Maine DEP, selection of a Lead Contractor who will prepare necessary bid packages and oversee each repair and the selection of the contractors who will repair each damaged area.

Repairs have been completed on 10 areas with 18 in the midst of the DEP permit approval. Repairs on these areas will commence later in 2020. Coordination with FEMA has been made to prepare the necessary documentation for reimbursement of repair costs. Joan Griswold, a volunteer and Chair of the Marginal Way Committee has performed these tasks with distinction and we are extremely thankful for her efforts.

Cancelled - please watch our website for the August 2021 date.

Annual Black-Swallow-Wort Picking Day

On behalf of Joan Griswold and the Marginal Way's Town Committee we want to thank and congratulate the many volunteers who showed up on Saturday, Aug. 17th for the 8th Annual Pod Picking Day on Ogunquit's Marginal Way. In just three hours this impressive group picked 720 pounds of Black Swallow Wort seed pods.

Their enthusiasm and hard work have a major impact in slowing the spread of this highly invasive vine.

Thanks to Jim Oliver, of Bessie's Restaurant, in Ogunquit, volunteers were provided a delicious lunch. We are also grateful to Scott Eldredge, of Eldredge Lumber in York, for donating the largest and toughest trash bags that were filled to the brim with Black Swallow Wort. Ogunquit's Transfer Station loaded the bags and removed them for incineration.

Volunteer work days like this help to spread awareness of the ongoing issues with invasive plants and the impact they have on our environment. We answered questions all morning long from visitors walking the Marginal Way about what we were doing and why. They all expressed their appreciation that so many people volunteered to battle rose thorns, poison ivy and insects to help preserve the beauty and environmental integrity of the Marginal Way.

Please watch for our 2020 announcement of next year's pod-picking and join us if you can. We love our volunteers.

Ogunquit ME

Our newest fundraising effort, which is already underway, is a National Art Competition and culminating Gala evening to be held at the Ogunquit Museum of American Art on June 28, 2020.

An open call to artists who are inspired by a love of the ocean to submit pieces has begun. Art will be judged by Kenn Backhaus, a master level artist in both the Oil Painters of America and the American Impressionist Society, and member and past President of the Plein Air Painters of America, the oldest and most prestigious plein air organization in the country, Don Demers, a “Fellow” of the American Society of Marine Artists, an elected member of the Guild of Boston Artists, an elected member of the California Art Club, and a signature member of PAPA (Plein Air Painters of America), Chris Caraviello, owner of Van Ward Gallery in Ogunquit, and Hilary Iron, gallery and exhibitions director at the University of New England. The top five winners will be announced at the Marginal Way Preservation Fund Gala at the OMAA.

Over $10,000 in cash prizes will be awarded. The 5 winners will also be treated to a one-night stay at The Beachmere Inn or The Anchorage Inn.

Thank you to all our supporters of The Marginal Way Preservation Fund!

Don't forget to PRESERVE YOUR WALK!

Marginal Way Preservation Fund Plaques

With donations from 25 families to purchase plaque names recently, we are again pleased to announce that we will be dedicating our 4th Plaque out of a total of 10 Plaques on the Marginal Way. In the first seven years since we began, we have been able to secure spaces on our plaques for 105 families, with 25 donors on each of the first four plaques and ten so far on the 5th plaque. The Town of Ogunquit agreed to the space where the granite slabs sit for the 10 bronze plaques that would each have 25 spaces to honor and memorialize loved ones. With almost half of all the plaque spaces sold, don't miss the opportunity to purchase a space to commemorate your own loved one.

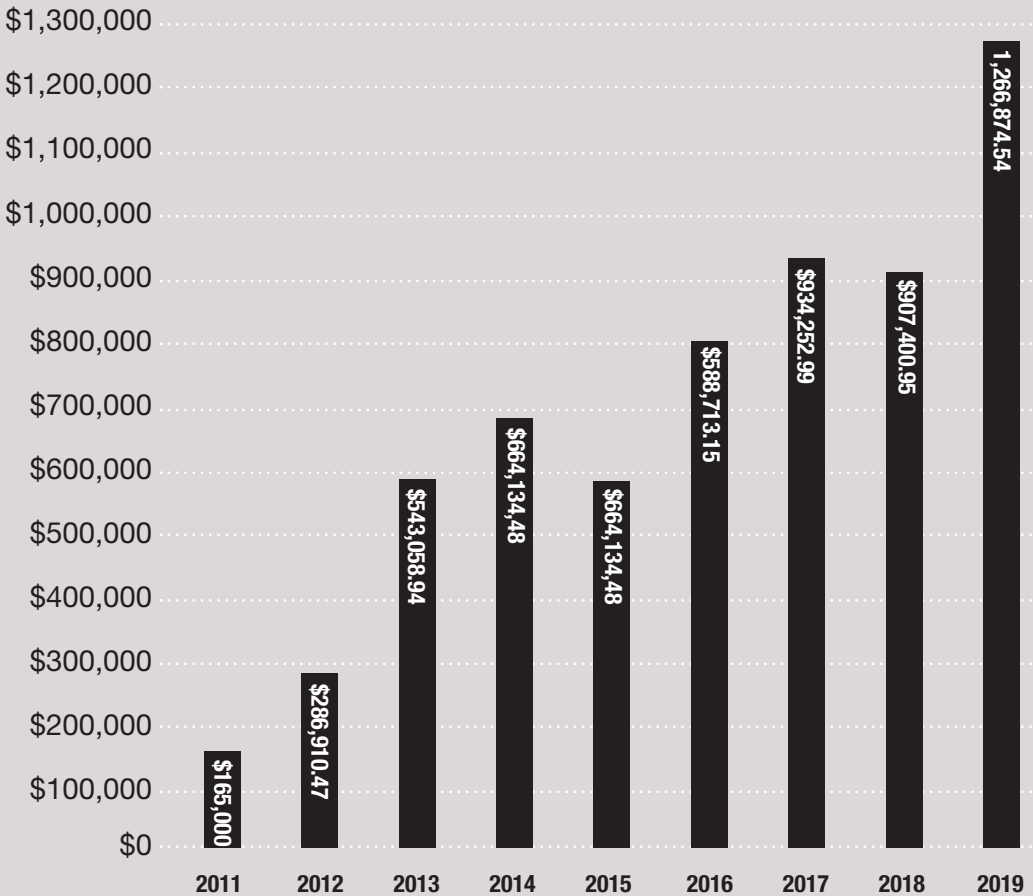

All donations are tax-deductible to the full extent of the law as we are a 501c3 non-profit.

Please visit our website under donations to see how you might secure one for your family.

Jeanne Roche, our Executive Director, is happy to work with you with any questions you may have at 207-641-2200.
